Blackboard to computer

LOUISE GOODWIN
MIDDLETON GRANGE: PYPER Campbell, 9, proudly led her grandfather around her Year four classroom and school grounds during a recent visit.

Thomas Hassall Anglican College’s grandparents day, held last month, was a chance for students and their grandparents to share school experiences. The day brought back school-time memories for Pyper’s grandfather, Patrick Gallagher, 70.

“I went to school in Bondi and we didn’t even wear school shoes,” he recalled.

“Connecting with my grand-daughter in a school environment on these beautiful grounds is very welcome. It’s wonderful seeing all these children, who are a great prospect for the future.”

Students, parents, grandparents, friends and relatives enjoyed tea, coffee and cake under marquees.

A book fair was also held for the special visit. Pyper said she was proud to show her grandfather what she does at school.

“I can show him all the stuff I do at school and he can listen to the songs we sing in class,” she said. “It’s really good having him here.”

ARE YOU a green champion?
Check the energy-saving tips on our @school page each week and try them out. They are so simple a child can do it.

While parents are concerned about electricity bills and saving money, children are keen to take action.

Our green champion tips can make a difference to your energy bills at home.

@ Librarians

The Leader will be celebrating the great work of school librarians this month. Flip to the @school section of the newspaper each week to view the feature.

The Leader is also offering your school the chance to win $500 worth of books for your library. The digital edition is a useful resource for teachers and students to access local news and events for free. Schools simply need to register for the digital edition to be in the running. By registering, users will receive an email alert when the latest edition of the newspaper is available online. Simply go to liverpoolleader.com.au/digitaledition, complete the registration form, enter your school’s name as the offer code and enjoy your local newspaper online. Entries close on August 31.